Talk About It This Week

Each day, read the appointed readings (or just one), then ask: Where did we hear God's Word planted today? What is God teaching us to trust? Day-by-day questions for younger and older children are in the daily devotion pages (and on the web page).

In Our Prayers This Week (LSB Daily Prayer Themes)

✠ Sun: the joy of the resurrection; fruit of faith in all who heard the Word today
✠ Mon: our Baptism, callings, and daily work; schools; good government and peace
✠ Tues: deliverance from temptation and evil; the addicted and despairing
✠ Wed: marriage and family; parents and children; our home and community
✠ Thurs: the Church, pastors, teachers, and missionaries; thanksgiving for the Sacrament
✠ Fri: the preaching of the cross; the persecuted; the sick and the dying
✠ Sat: faithfulness to the end; hearts made ready for the Lord's Day

Hymn of the Week: "O Living Bread from Heaven" — LSB 642

O living Bread from heaven, / How well You feed Your guest! / The gifts that You have given / Have filled my heart with rest. / Oh, wondrous food of blessing, / Oh, cup that heals our woes, / My heart, this gift possessing, / With praises overflows.

Apostles' Creed

Lord's Prayer

Benediction

Let us bless the Lord. Thanks be to God.

HOW TO USE THIS PAGE… Gather once a day — at breakfast, supper, or bedtime. Speak the Invocation, say the memory verse together, read the day's readings, talk about them, sing the hymn stanza, pray for the day's theme, and close with the Lord's Prayer and Benediction. Ten minutes is plenty. The seed does the work — "so shall My word be… it shall not return to Me empty" (Isaiah 55:11).

The Tenth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 13) August 2, 2026

Season of Pentecost ✠ Liturgical Color: Green

Introit Psalm 105:39–43; antiphon: v. 1

Oh give thanks to the LORD; call upon his name;
make known his deeds among the peoples!
He spread a cloud for a covering,
and fire to give light by night.
They asked, and he brought quail,
and gave them bread from heaven in abundance.
He opened the rock, and water gushed out;
it flowed through the desert like a river.
For he remembered his holy promise,
and Abraham, his servant.
So he brought his people out with joy,
his chosen ones with singing.
Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.
Oh give thanks to the LORD; call upon his name;
make known his deeds among the peoples!

Collect of the Day

Heavenly Father, though we do not deserve Your goodness, still You provide for all our needs of body and soul. Grant us Your Holy Spirit that we may acknowledge Your gifts, give thanks for all Your benefits, and serve You in willing obedience; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

This Sunday's Readings

Isaiah 55:1–5 · Psalm 136:1–9 (23–26) · Romans 9:1–5 (6–13) · Matthew 14:13–21

Gradual Romans 11:33, 36

Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God!
How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways!
For from him and through him and to him are all things.
To him be glory forever. Amen.

Next Sunday's Readings (Proper 14)

Job 38:4–18 · Psalm 18:1–6 (7–16) · Romans 10:5–17 · Matthew 14:22–33

Learn by Heart: The Fourth Petition of the Lord's Prayer LSB p. 323

"Give us this day our daily bread. What does this mean? God certainly gives daily bread to everyone without our prayers, even to all evil people, but we pray in this petition that God would lead us to realize this and to receive our daily bread with thanksgiving."

THIS WEEK AT HOME: In this Sunday's Gospel more than five thousand hungry people sit down on the grass, and all the disciples can find is five loaves and two fish. Jesus takes the little that is there, gives thanks, breaks it, and hands it back — and everyone eats until they are full, with twelve baskets left over. Isaiah 55 calls the thirsty to come and buy "without money and without price." Watch that pattern all week: a shepherd boy with a sling, a prisoner breaking bread in a shipwreck. Ask one another: "What has God put in our hands that He may want to bless, break, and give away?"

Kids in the Divine Service — What is the "Agnus Dei"?

The Agnus Dei (pronounced AHN-yus DAY-ee) is Latin for "Lamb of God" — words the Church has sung for almost 1,200 years, right before we come to the Lord's Table.

In John 1:29 John the Baptizer points at Jesus: "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world." Singing the Agnus Dei, we confess the same thing — just as Christ gives us His body and blood for the forgiveness of sins.

Parents: After the service, read John 1:29–34 and compare it to the Passover lamb of Exodus 12:1–11.
