Hymn of the Week: "Almighty God, Your Word Is Cast" — LSB 577
Almighty God, Your Word is cast / Like seed into the ground; / Now let the dew of heav'n descend / And righteous fruits abound.

Apostles' Creed

Lord's Prayer

Benediction
Let us bless the Lord. Thanks be to God.

HOW TO USE THIS PAGE… Gather once a day — at breakfast, supper, or bedtime. Speak the Invocation, say the memory verse together, read the day's readings, talk about them, sing the hymn stanza, pray for the day's theme, and close with the Lord's Prayer and Benediction. Ten minutes is plenty. The seed does the work — "so shall My word be… it shall not return to Me empty" (Isaiah 55:11).

The Seventh Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 10) July 12, 2026

Season of Pentecost ✠ Liturgical Color: Green

Introit Psalm 103:15–19; antiphon: v. 8

The LORD is merciful and gracious,
slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.
As for man, his days are like grass;
he flourishes like a flower of the field;
for the wind passes over it, and it is gone,
and its place knows it no more.
But the steadfast love of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear him,
and his righteousness to children's children,
to those who keep his covenant
and remember to do his commandments.
The LORD has established his throne in the heavens,
and his kingdom rules over all.
Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.
The LORD is merciful and gracious,
slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

Collect of the Day

Blessed Lord, since You have caused all Holy Scriptures to be written for our learning, grant that we may so hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

This Sunday's Readings

Isaiah 55:10–13 · Psalm 65:(1–8) 9–13 · Romans 8:12–17 · Matthew 13:1–9, 18–23

Gradual Romans 11:33, 36

Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God!
How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways!
For from him and through him and to him are all things.
To him be glory forever. Amen.

Next Sunday's Readings (Proper 11)

Isaiah 44:6–8 · Psalm 119:57–64 · Romans 8:18–27 · Matthew 13:24–30, 36–43

Learn by Heart: The Third Article of the Creed LSB p. 323

"I believe that I cannot by my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ, my Lord, or come to Him; but the Holy Spirit has called me by the Gospel, enlightened me with His gifts, sanctified and kept me in the true faith…"

THIS WEEK AT HOME: In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells of a sower whose seed falls on the path, on rocky ground, among thorns, and on good soil. The seed is the Word of God — and God is gloriously "wasteful" with it, scattering it everywhere, even on us! Through the week, watch the readings show that Word at work: in Gideon's 300, in Samson's weakness, in Hannah's prayer, and in Paul's letter to the Galatians. Ask one another: "Where is God sowing His Word in our family — and what fruit is He growing?"

Kids in the Divine Service — What is the "Introit"?

The Introit (pronounced in-TRO-it) comes from the Latin word introitus, which means "entrance." The Introit used to be sung as the pastors came into the church and approached the altar.

Usually the Introit is a Psalm, or parts of Psalms, put together to sketch a picture of the theme for the day. This week's Introit is from Psalm 103 — listen for it near the beginning of the service, and see if you can hear the theme of the day in it.

Parents: Before or after the Divine Service, look through the service folder for the Introit. Be sure to point out the one theme that ties all the parts of the service together: our Savior, Jesus Christ.
