Talk About It This Week
Each day, read the appointed readings (or just one), then ask: Where did we hear God's Word planted today? What is God teaching us to trust? Day-by-day questions for younger and older children are in the daily devotion pages (and on the web page).

In Our Prayers This Week (LSB Daily Prayer Themes)
✠ Sun: the joy of the resurrection; fruit of faith in all who heard the Word today
✠ Mon: our Baptism, callings, and daily work; schools; good government and peace
✠ Tues: deliverance from temptation and evil; the addicted and despairing
✠ Wed: marriage and family; parents and children; our home and community
✠ Thurs: the Church, pastors, teachers, and missionaries; thanksgiving for the Sacrament
✠ Fri: the preaching of the cross; the persecuted; the sick and the dying
✠ Sat: faithfulness to the end; hearts made ready for the Lord's Day

Hymn of the Week: "Crown Him with Many Crowns" — LSB 525
Crown Him with many crowns, / The Lamb upon His throne; / Hark! How the heav'nly anthem drowns / All music but its own. / Awake, my soul, and sing / Of Him who died for thee, / And hail Him as thy matchless king / Through all eternity.

Apostles' Creed

Lord's Prayer

Benediction
Let us bless the Lord. Thanks be to God.

HOW TO USE THIS PAGE… Gather once a day — at breakfast, supper, or bedtime. Speak the Invocation, say the memory verse together, read the day's readings, talk about them, sing the hymn stanza, pray for the day's theme, and close with the Lord's Prayer and Benediction. Ten minutes is plenty. The seed does the work — "so shall My word be… it shall not return to Me empty" (Isaiah 55:11).

The Last Sunday of the Church Year (Proper 29) November 22, 2026

Season of Pentecost ✠ Liturgical Color: Green

Introit Psalm 39:4–5, 7–8, 12a; antiphon: 2 Peter 3:13b

According to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.
O LORD, make me know my end and what is the measure of my days;
let me know how fleeting I am!
Behold, you have made my days a few handbreadths, and my lifetime is as nothing before you.
Surely all mankind stands as a mere breath!
And now, O Lord, for what do I wait?
My hope is in you.
Deliver me from all my transgressions.
Do not make me the scorn of the fool!
Hear my prayer, O LORD,
and give ear to my cry.
Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.
According to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth
in which righteousness dwells.

Collect of the Day

Eternal God, merciful Father, You have appointed Your Son as judge of the living and the dead. Enable us to wait for the day of His return with our eyes fixed on the kingdom prepared for Your own from the foundation of the world; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

This Sunday's Readings

Ezekiel 34:11–16, 20–24 · Psalm 95:1–7a · 1 Corinthians 15:20–28 · Matthew 25:31–46

Next Sunday's Readings (Advent 1 (Series B begins))

Isaiah 64:1–9 · Psalm 80:1–7 · 1 Corinthians 1:3–9 · Mark 11:1–10 or Mark 13:24–37

Learn by Heart: The Close of the Commandments LSB p. 322

"God threatens to punish all who break these commandments. Therefore we should fear His wrath and not do anything against them. But He promises grace and every blessing to all who keep these commandments. Therefore we should also love and trust in Him and gladly do what He commands."

THIS WEEK AT HOME: The Church Year ends where everything ends: with the King on His throne, separating sheep from goats, and telling the righteous that when they fed the hungry and visited the prisoner they were doing it to Him. Ezekiel promises this Sunday that God Himself will come and shepherd His scattered flock. This week Daniel stands before furnaces and lions and kings, and Revelation opens onto a new heaven and a new earth where God wipes away every tear. Thanksgiving falls on Thursday. Ask one another: "If the King is already among us in the hungry and the forgotten, who is He this week?"

Kids in the Divine Service — What is the "Sunday of the Fulfillment"?

The Sunday of the Fulfillment is the last Sunday of the Church Year. It is the day we look forward to the coming of our Lord Jesus on the Last Day.

Have you ever had to wait a long time for something you really wanted? The waiting is hard, but when the gift finally comes, all that waiting feels complete — "fulfilled." Christians are waiting for Jesus to return. When He does, Scripture says He will take His people to be with Him in His kingdom forever. Now that is something to be excited about!

Parents: Talk with your children about what will happen when Jesus returns; read portions of Matthew 24 and 25 together. Remind them that in Baptism Jesus makes us His own, and that through faith in Him we live as people patiently awaiting His return.
