Talk About It This Week

Each day, read the appointed readings (or just one), then ask: Where did we hear God's Word planted today? What is God teaching us to trust? Day-by-day questions for younger and older children are in the daily devotion pages (and on the web page).

Hymn of the Week: "Our Father, Who from Heaven Above" — LSB 766

Forgive our sins, Lord, we implore, / That they may trouble us no more; / We too will gladly those forgive / Who hurt us by the way they live. / Help us in our community / To serve each other willingly.

Apostles' Creed

Lord's Prayer

Benediction

Let us bless the Lord. Thanks be to God.

HOW TO USE THIS PAGE… Gather once a day — at breakfast, supper, or bedtime. Speak the Invocation, say the memory verse together, read the day's readings, talk about them, sing the hymn stanza, pray for the day's theme, and close with the Lord's Prayer and Benediction. Ten minutes is plenty. The seed does the work — "so shall My word be… it shall not return to Me empty" (Isaiah 55:11).

The Sixteenth Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 19) September 13, 2026

Season of Pentecost ✠ Liturgical Color: Green

Introit Psalm 143:1–2; antiphon: v. 9

Deliver me from my enemies, O LORD!
I have fled to you for refuge.
Hear my prayer, O LORD; give ear to my pleas for mercy!
In your faithfulness answer me, in your righteousness!
Enter not into judgment with your servant,
for no one living is righteous before you.
Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.
Deliver me from my enemies, O LORD!
I have fled to you for refuge.

Learn by Heart: The Fifth Petition of the Lord's Prayer LSB p. 324

"We pray in this petition that our Father in heaven would not look at our sins, or deny our prayer because of them. We are neither worthy of the things for which we pray, nor have we deserved them, but we ask that He would give them all to us by grace."

THIS WEEK AT HOME: Peter thinks he is being generous when he offers to forgive seven times. Jesus answers seventy-seven, and then tells of a servant forgiven a debt he could never have repaid in a hundred lifetimes — who then throttles a man over pocket change. This week the readings give the astonishing case of Manasseh, the worst king Judah ever had, who repents in a foreign prison and is forgiven. Ask one another: "What has God forgiven in us that we would be ashamed to say out loud — and who are we still holding something against?"

Kids in the Divine Service — What does "redemption" mean?

"Redemption" comes from the word "redeem," which means "to buy back." God's plan of redemption was His plan to buy us back from sin, death, and the power of the devil. Jesus kept the Law perfectly and died on the cross in our place. He paid the high price for sin and bought us back — and then rose from the dead to prove it.

This week's Gospel is about a debt. The servant owed ten thousand talents, more money than he could earn in many lifetimes, and the king simply cancelled it. That is what redemption means: not a smaller bill, but a paid one.

Parents: What God has done for us in Jesus reflects the fatherly love He has for all people. Share that love with your children through the means the Lord has given — Word and Sacrament — where we receive the real fruits of redemption.
