Talk About It This Week
Each day, read the appointed readings (or just one), then ask: Where did we hear God's Word planted today? What is God teaching us to trust? Day-by-day questions for younger and older children are in the daily devotion pages (and on the web page).

In Our Prayers This Week (LSB Daily Prayer Themes)
✠ Sun: the joy of the resurrection; fruit of faith in all who heard the Word today
✠ Mon: our Baptism, callings, and daily work; schools; good government and peace
✠ Tues: deliverance from temptation and evil; the addicted and despairing
✠ Wed: marriage and family; parents and children; our home and community
✠ Thurs: the Church, pastors, teachers, and missionaries; thanksgiving for the Sacrament
✠ Fri: the preaching of the cross; the persecuted; the sick and the dying
✠ Sat: faithfulness to the end; hearts made ready for the Lord's Day

Hymn of the Week: "For All the Saints" — LSB 677
For all the saints who from their labors rest, / Who Thee by faith before the world confessed, / Thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest. / Alleluia! Alleluia!

Apostles' Creed

Lord's Prayer

Benediction
Let us bless the Lord. Thanks be to God.

HOW TO USE THIS PAGE… Gather once a day — at breakfast, supper, or bedtime. Speak the Invocation, say the memory verse together, read the day's readings, talk about them, sing the hymn stanza, pray for the day's theme, and close with the Lord's Prayer and Benediction. Ten minutes is plenty. The seed does the work — "so shall My word be… it shall not return to Me empty" (Isaiah 55:11).

All Saints' Day November 1, 2026

Season of All Saints ✠ Liturgical Color: White

Introit Psalm 31:1, 3, 5; antiphon: Revelation 7:14b

These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation.
They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.
In you, O LORD, do I take refuge; let me never be put to shame;
in your righteousness deliver me.
For you are my rock and my fortress;
and for your name's sake you lead me and guide me.
Into your hand I commit my spirit;
you have redeemed me, O LORD, faithful God.
Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.
These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation.
They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Collect of the Day

Almighty and everlasting God, You knit together Your faithful people of all times and places into one holy communion, the mystical body of Your Son, Jesus Christ. Grant us so to follow Your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that, together with them, we may come to the unspeakable joys You have prepared for those who love You; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

This Sunday's Readings

Revelation 7:(2–8) 9–17 · Psalm 149 · 1 John 3:1–3 · Matthew 5:1–12

Gradual Revelation 7:14b; Psalm 84:5

These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation.
They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.
Blessed are those whose strength is in you,
in whose heart are the highways to Zion.

Next Sunday's Readings (Proper 27)

Amos 5:18–24 · Psalm 70 · 1 Thessalonians 4:13–18 · Matthew 25:1–13

Learn by Heart: The Second Petition of the Lord's Prayer LSB p. 323

"Thy kingdom come. What does this mean? God's kingdom comes when our heavenly Father gives us His Holy Spirit, so that by His grace we believe His holy Word and lead godly lives here in time and there in eternity."

THIS WEEK AT HOME: John sees a crowd too large to count, from every nation and language, standing before the throne in white robes — and when he asks who they are, the answer is that they came out of great tribulation and washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb. That is the whole doctrine of sainthood in one sentence: not people who were impressive, but people who were washed. This week begins with the death of Moses and moves into Jeremiah, and on Wednesday Jesus says God "is not God of the dead, but of the living." Ask one another: "Who in our family has died in the faith — and what does it mean that they are more alive right now than we are?"

Kids in the Divine Service — What is "All Saints' Day"?

All Saints' Day is the day in the Church Year when we remember and give thanks for all those who have died with faith in Jesus and are now with Him. The word "saint" comes from the Latin sanctus, meaning "holy." Saints are simply God's holy people.

Do you have to die to be a saint? No way! All of God's faithful people are His saints. You were washed clean of your sins at your Baptism and made holy before God. That is what Scripture means when it says, "They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb." It is not what you have done that makes you a saint, but what Jesus has done for you.

Parents: Talk to your children about those in your own family who have died in the faith. Explain that they are now with Jesus, and remind them that this is the fulfillment of God's promises made at their Baptism.
