Talk About It This Week
Each day, read the appointed readings (or just one), then ask: Where did we hear God's Word planted today? What is God teaching us to trust? Day-by-day questions for younger and older children are in the daily devotion pages (and on the web page).

Hymn of the Week: "Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me" — LSB 715
Jesus, Savior, pilot me / Over life's tempestuous sea; / Unknown waves before me roll, / Hiding rock and treacherous shoal. / Chart and compass come from Thee: / Jesus, Savior, pilot me.

Apostles' Creed

Lord's Prayer

Benediction
Let us bless the Lord. Thanks be to God.

HOW TO USE THIS PAGE… Gather once a day — at breakfast, supper, or bedtime. Speak the Invocation, say the memory verse together, read the day's readings, talk about them, sing the hymn stanza, pray for the day's theme, and close with the Lord's Prayer and Benediction. Ten minutes is plenty. The seed does the work — "so shall My word be… it shall not return to Me empty" (Isaiah 55:11).

The Eleventh Sunday after Pentecost (Proper 14) August 9, 2026

Season of Pentecost ✠ Liturgical Color: Green

Introit Psalm 34:4–8; antiphon: v. 1

I will bless the LORD at all times;
his praise shall continually be in my mouth.
I sought the LORD, and he answered me
and delivered me from all my fears.
Those who look to him are radiant,
and their faces shall never be ashamed.
This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him
and saved him out of all his troubles.
The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him,
and delivers them.
Oh, taste and see that the LORD is good!
Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him!
Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.
I will bless the LORD at all times;
his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

Learn by Heart: The Introduction to the Lord's Prayer LSB p. 323

"With these words God tenderly invites us to believe that He is our true Father and that we are His true children, so that with all boldness and confidence we may ask Him as dear children ask their dear father."

THIS WEEK AT HOME: In this Sunday's Gospel the disciples are alone in a boat at night, fighting the wind, when Jesus comes to them walking on the water. Peter asks to come, walks, looks at the waves, and sinks — and the first thing he does right is cry out, "Lord, save me." Jesus catches him immediately. Through the week the readings are full of people caught in storms of their own: David hunted by Saul, Abigail riding out to stop bloodshed, Saul groping in the dark for answers God had already offered him. Ask one another: "What storm are we in right now — and have we actually asked Jesus for help, out loud?"

Kids in the Divine Service — What is "prayer"?

Have you ever wanted to talk to God? You can! God promises to hear and answer us when we pray. Because we want to concentrate on what we are praying and who we are praying to, we may close our eyes, fold our hands, and bow our heads so we are not distracted. You don't have to do all that, though — you can pray anywhere, at any time.

We not only ask God for what we need; we praise and thank Him for what He has already given. Much of our worship is prayer, including the Confession, the Agnus Dei, and the Post-Communion Canticle. This week's Gospel has one of the shortest prayers in the Bible — Peter, sinking, cries "Lord, save me!" and Jesus catches him at once.

Parents: Point out the different prayers in the service, such as the Prayer of the Church. Then turn to page 327 in Lutheran Service Book and read Luther's Morning and Evening Prayers; try using them at home when your children wake up and before they go to bed.
